Further recalling that economic development can be achieved and sustained with economic integration and that economic integration will solve many regional conflicts amongst OIC member states.

Hopeful of the general atmosphere in the house and confirming that a solution paper will be given which could end the current issue at hand in the long-term,

1. Defines Economic Development as the development of economic wealth of countries, regions or communities for the well-being of their inhabitants, and understands that from a policy perspective, economic development could be defined as efforts that seek to improve the economic well-being and quality of life for a community by creating and/or retaining jobs and supporting or growing incomes and the tax base;
2. Further defines Economic Integration as an agreement among countries in a geographic region to reduce and ultimately remove, tariff and nontariff barriers to the free flow of goods or services and factors of production among each other's; and refers any type of arrangement in which countries agree to coordinate their trade, fiscal, and/or monetary policies as economic integration, having, obviously, many different stages of the same;
3. Calls upon the establishment of a new Economic Forum to enhance strategies to maximizing the efficiency of OIC Member States' economies, and urges establishment of a working group to finalize required steps towards it;
4. Resolves to monitor the coordination of OIC Member States towards their full economic integration so as to prevent the violation decisions in this regards;
5. Observes that territorial trust issues are major obstacles to economic development and integration, and therefore urges the solving of any territorial trust issue or regional disputes among OIC Member States with a view to deterring all required obstacles towards promoting a fully merged OIC economic activity agenda;
6. Decides to introduce seminars, education programs, workshops and social media activities to promote and maximize the idea of an integrated economy environment, in which the following issues will be emphasized on:
  - a. The advantages of an integrated community,
  - b. The ways of sustaining a growing economy,
  - c. The information regarding what ways of production and state of technology will be used to maximize production efficiency, and
  - d. The ways of minimizing trust issues amongst OIC member states, 7. Concludes that a sustainable economic growth for each and every OIC Member State is possible as long as the fundamental human rights are sustained in every country, and emphasizes that every OIC Member State citizen has the right to:

- b. The protection of human rights,
- c. Weakening of extremist ideologies,
- d. A reduction of militarism, racism and sexism,
- e. Democratization and participatory governance, and Strengthening of the civil society.

8. Suggests the education of the youth as a long-term solution towards the advantages of a merged and integrated economy compared to each country acting independently from one another;

Underlining the need for all concerned to refrain from hostilities and acts of violence, and reiterating its all call to the parties involved to continue the political dialogue,

Being aware of the fact that the promotion and conservation of the traditional Islamic culture is an important tool to combat Islamophobia,

Islamic culture, as a tool to combat Islamophobia, may not be enough in the short-term, especially when considering the fact that the phenomenon has been one of the biggest challenges of the Muslim world in the 21st century,

Hopeful of the general atmosphere in the house and confirms that a solution paper will be given which could end the current issue at hand in the long-term,

1. Emphasizes the significance of the Islamic Solidarity Games in the role of increasing awareness and solidarity amongst OIC members and in this regard, appreciates the outstanding efforts and generous patronage of H.E. Mihriban Aliyeva, the first Vice President of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Head of the Organizing Committee of the games,

2. Agrees with the decision of ICYF-DC board to welcome proposal by youth representatives to celebrate every 3rd of September as the OIC Youth Day in all OIC member states,

3. Stresses the role and potential of ethno sports and engaging the Muslim youth in a culturally sensitive manner, including as a tool to fighting Islamophobia; and in this context suggest that the ethno sports games taking place currently in Turkey, to be also extended to other OIC Member States as periodical events or, even, be incorporated into the Islamic Solidarity Games,

4. Acknowledges Islamophobia as a contemporary form of racism and discrimination, constituting, therefore, a matter of vital concern to the OIC, its Member States and relevant Institutions, including ICYF-DC;

5. Condemns all Islamophobia manifestations, as well as practices and policies leading to it in the world, particularly in the west;

6. Calls upon all non-governmental peace organizations to raise awareness in the world regarding the consequences of Islamophobia and the reasons why it is a malign practice and policy for the world peace and security;

7. Decides to launch awareness campaigns against Islamophobia through Islamic culture by:

a. Carrying out education workshops under the OIC umbrella to firstly inform its Member States and its people regarding the malaises of Islamophobia in the world,

b. Scheduling education workshops in Europe and the rest of the world that informs all concerned audiences about Islam and remove the prejudice that terrorist groups, claiming to act on behalf of Islam, have constructed towards the faith of Muslims over the last decade,

c. Establishing application platform for the victims of Islamophobia to speak out,

d. Organizing dialogue programs between the east and west to bridge the gap among all communities,

e. Promoting the regional peace and security of the Muslim-populated areas outside the OIC Member States by offering economic, social and humanitarian aid, and

f. Preventing any sorts of crime committed by OIC Member States' citizens due to economic or social reasons by providing aids towards education, social needs so as to fulfill the very basic human-rights, including shelter and water;

8. Urges any countries outside the OIC to also condemn such racist acts and raise the global pressure on such crime activities to ensure the psychological safety of victims of Islamophobia, and stresses out that the need to overcome ignorance of Islamic tradition and principles by some quarters of the western societies;

9. Encourages the youth of the OIC Member States to fight Islamophobia with a united stand, while treating such racist manifestations as a ignorance about Islam and Muslims,

10. Recommends the international community to commit itself towards global recognition of Islamophobia as a human-right violation, and offers the following possible solution to such phenomenon:

- a. Reducing inequality and oppression,
- b. Protecting human rights,
- c. Weakening of extremist ideologies,
- d. Reducing militarism, racism and sexism,
- e. Promoting democratization and participatory governance, and
- f. Strengthening of the civil society;

11. Suggests, as a tool for globally fighting Islamophobia, the use of social media, considering that it among of the best ways to do so if used appropriately;

12. Requests the Chairperson to follow-up the implementation of this Resolution and to report thereon to the 2nd Executive Model OIC.
